Disclaimer:

ISM's Board of Directors & Management are pleased to have our community members return to their local Masjid.

In an effort to protect our community from the spread of the virus, we wish to inform all congregants to take all precautionary measures outlined in our re-opening guidelines.

We would also request all attendees to adhere to the protocols and procedures laid out by our staff and volunteers, to ensure safe measures.

Please note that despite taking all of the necessary safety measures to protect everyone based on Public Health guidelines and best practices from other Masajid, ISM is NOT responsible for any health and/or safety incident that may occur due to normal course of operations. In addition, these measures are subject to change as per public health guidelines and changing circumstances. Jazakum ALLAH khair.
