Hadith of the Day

إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَى صُورِكُمْ وَأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَلَكِنْ يَنْظُرُ إِلَى قُلُوبِكُمْ وَأَعْمَالِكُمْ

Allah does not look at your faces and wealth but He looks at your hearts and deeds.

LET'S SHARE KNOWLEDGE!

Jumada al-Awwal is the fifth month of the Islamic (Hijri) calendar, it carries spiritual importance as part of the early months of the Islamic year. The word "Jumada" comes from "Jamad," meaning dryness or stillness, — symbolizing a season of patience and inner strength.

This month encourages believers to:

- * Renew intentions and strengthen their connection with Allah after the busy start of the year.
- * Continue good deeds initiated in the previous months.
- * Reflect on consistency in worship, kindness, and community service.
- * Learn from the lives of the Sahabah who lived with steadfastness and balance in their faith.
